"BLACK HAND" LETTERS. "This is the first notice. Have $500 on your person all the time between now and next Saturday, and give it up to us Don't tell the police and don't try to get away, for we will get you. We will meet you somewhere, so have the money ready." when we meet or you are a dead man.

This communication was found by W R. Jeter, one of the most prominent real estate men of Richmond, last Sanday afternoon, on his office floor. It had been shoved by unidentified parties beneath the door. But little attention was given the letter then, and he said nothing to anyone, anticipating a joke by some friends. Going home Tuesday morning Mr. Jeter found another letter there, delivered by the postman. The second letter read:

"This is your second notice. Have your $500 ready, as we hate to kill you, and we must have it and you must get it for us. We will meet you, and hand it to us when we meet you. You can't

Both letters are neatly written with a typewriter on paper from which the watermark is torn. They bear a number of apparently intentional typographical errors. Jeter has informed the police and a close watch is being kept, while he has armed himself fally. The joke theory has been cast aside and the police think there is more behind the letter.

Make a note now to get Ely's Cream Balm if you are troubled with nasal catarrh, hay fever or cold in the bead. It is purifying and soothing to the sensitive membrane that lines the air passages. It is made to overcome the disease, not to fool the patient by a short, deceptive relief. There is no cocaine nor mercury in it. Do not be talked into taking a substitute for Ely's Cream Balm. All druggists sell it. Price 50c. Mailed by Ely Brcs, 56 Warren Street, New York.

ATTORNEY GENERAL FINED. After a deliberation of 50 minutes, the ury in the McDowell county. W. Va., terday found Judge Samuel W. Williams, attorney general of Virginia, and battery upon the person of Joseph M. Saunders, of Bluefield, formerly chief justice of the State Supreme Court of West Virginis, in the courtroom at Welch, last fall, when Judge Williams was a candidate for attorney general, and a fine of $100 was imposed by the court. The charge nader which Judge Wil-liams was indicted was that of felonious sessuit, not only grave, but a penalty, offense in West Virginia, but after the instructions to the jury were fully argued, the charge was changed to simple assault and battery. The legal mster hinged on the question of sufficient provocation. In his testimony Judge Saunders admitted having said that if Judge Williams said certain things in a case which was then being tried, he (Willams) was a "d-d llar," whereupon Judge Williams grabbed an inkatand and hurled it across the room at the West Virginia jurist, inflicting a bad wound on the head. Both men then, secording to the evidence, picked up chairs and were about to rush at each other, but friends parted them, and no further damage was done.

Your tongue is coated. Your breath is foul. Headaches come and go.

These symptoms show that your stomach is the trouble. To remove the cause is the first thing, and Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will do that. Easy to take and most effective. Sold by W. F. Oreighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.

THE KETCHELL-LANGFORD FIGHT ..

Stanley Ketchell and Sam Langford will have to fight again to settle the question of pugilistic supremacy. They met in a hard six-round bout at the National Athletic Club in Philadelphia last night and were both on their feet able to continue, with plenty of strength and aggressiveness, when the battle end-ed with no decision by the referee. No knockdowns were scored in spite of the terrific hitting power of both men, and while there seems to be no doubt that they tried to do their best, they will probably come together in a longer fight in California next July for a $30,000

Langford showed a superior knowledge of boxing and scientific fighting, and in the fourth round his clean left-hand jabs drew the blood from Ketchell's nose. He also had the white man a trifle tried when this round ended, but in the fith Ketchell began to do some terrific punching and even up the score. All through the fight the men pounded away at the ribs, stomach, and heart with blows for the jaw landing now and then. In hitting power it was about a stand-off, but the big crowd was visibly disappointed because no knock-out was Feet Tired--So Tired?

TIZ Makes Sick Feet Well No Matter What Ails Them.

TIZ acis at once and makes tired, aching, swollen feet remarkably fresh and sore proof. It's the sure remedy, you know, for everything that gets the matter with your feet. It's for sore feet and for sweaty, bad-smelling feet, and for corns, callouses and bunions, too. "For years I have been troubled with sore and tender feet; suffered intense pains. Have had the assistance of physicians without relief. I bought a box of TIZ, which worked a perfect cure, as it has with a great many of ay friends. I would not be without it. All it requires is to be known to be universally used."—A. F. Dreutzer, Chicago.

TIZ is not a powder. Fowders and other foot remedies clog up the pores. TIZ draws out all poisonous exudations which bring on soreness of the feet, and is the only remedy that does. TIZ cleans out every pore and glorifies the feet—vour feet.

You'll never limp again or draw up your face in pain, and you'll forget about your corns, butions and callouses. You'll feel like a new person.

follow the teachings of the Bible and the articles of religion of the church, de claring that they need have no fear in so doing. Speaking of the decline of orthodox ideas, he said:

"This is a day of liberal ideas, and the tendency is to bring down the sacred doctrines of the Bible to suit modern conditions. We are ceasing t believe in such miracles as the Hebrew children in the fiery farnace and that the whale swallowed Jonah. We have fanned and cooled off the terrors of hell until there is hardly any fire left there. You young men just out of school must not say "This or that commentator saya so and so, but I think it is this.' The people do not want your views about scriptural matters. We must read, understand and believe the Bible if we would successfully preach to men about their souls' salvation."

"They come high." "The best are the cheapest." Our people want them and so we say to the ladies you can see J. & T. Cousin's Exclusive Styles at 422 King street, J. A. Marshall & Bro.
